POLICY NO. M6/20

1.0 Background and aims

The aim of the government's Prevent strategy is to reduce the threat to the UK from terrorism by stopping people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism. This is part of an overall counter-terrorism strategy called CONTEST. In the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 this has simply been expressed as "prevent people from being drawn into terrorism".

The government's Prevent strategy has three specific strategic objectives:

- Respond to the ideological challenge of terrorism and the threat we face from those who promote it;
- Prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and ensure that they are given appropriate advice and support; and
- Work with sectors and institutions where there are risks of radicalisation that we need to address.

Prevent work is intended to deal with all kinds of terrorist threats to the UK. The most significant of these threats are currently from Daesh, Al-Qa'ida associated groups, and from other terrorist organisations in Syria and Iraq. Also terrorists associated with the extreme right-wing also pose a continued threat to our safety and also there are active dissident republican groups in Northern Ireland. The Government has defined extremism in the Prevent strategy as: "vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also include in our definition of extremism calls for the death of members of our armed forces".

1.1 Aims

The aim of this policy is to ensure, as far as possible, is that the College (Harrow College and Uxbridge College HCUC) is fulfilling the duty in sections 26 and 29 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015. The College (HCUC) will participate fully in work to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and that should this occur there are procedures to deal with them.

1.2 Review

This policy will be reviewed annually.

2 The Legal Position

2.1 The Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015

This places a duty on colleges to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism. While this duty is not new to colleges the secretary of state has been given new powers to place specific duties on colleges. These are outlined in the Prevent duty statutory guidance (April 2019 HM government) and Specific FE Prevent duty Guidance. Some of the key duties are summarized below:

Partnership: The College (HCUC) commits to active engagement from governors, senior managers, regional BIS Prevent Coordinators, the police and local authorities, and co-ordination through existing multi-agency forums, for example Community Safety Partnerships.

Sharing information: The College commits to share personal information with authorities to ensure, for example, that a person at risk of radicalisation is given appropriate support (for example on the Channel programme). The College commits to maintain appropriate records to show compliance with its responsibilities and in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 and the DfE publication 'Information sharing. Advice for practitioners providing safeguarding services to children, young people, parents and carers', July 2018.

Risk assessment: The College has a risk assessment and associated action plan which assesses where and how students may be at risk of being drawn into terrorism and how the College is mitigating for this risk. The College's risk assessment is reviewed termly by both Harrow College and Uxbridge College.

Action Plan: Should the College identify a significant risk it will notify the relevant BIS Prevent Coordinator and others as necessary and develop a Prevent action plan to set out the actions to mitigate the risks.

Staff Training: The College will commit to providing appropriate training and development for principals, governors, leaders and staff. It will promote understanding of the factors that make people vulnerable to being drawn into terrorism and to challenge extremist ideas. It will also promote British Values to encourage respect and tolerance.

Welfare and pastoral care: The College has a Statement on Religious Diversity. This policy outlines the structures in place for managing prayer and faith facilities and mechanisms for managing any issues arising from the use of the facilities.

IT: The College has policies relating to the use of IT on the premises which contain specific reference to the duty. The College monitors use of IT for any concerns and acts upon this monitoring where these concerns are raised.

Work Based Learners: The DfE released new, non-statutory guidance for providers of WBL and the Prevent statutory duty in September 2018. There are 20 recommendations in this guidance which the College commits to providing within its WBL provision.

2.2 The Equality Act 2010 and Keeping Children Safe in Education

The Prevent duty is relevant to fulfilling other responsibilities such as the duty arising from section 149 of the Equality Act 2010.

The College, as a public body, recognises this duty placed upon it by the above Act to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic & those who do not.

For further information refer to the College's Equality and Diversity Policy.

The College also has a Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy which should be referred to in conjunction with this policy.

3 Engagement with other partners including police and local authority Prevent Coordinators

The College is a member of the HE and FE Prevent London Region Group chaired by the prevent Coordinator for London. It is also a member of the Hillingdon/Harrow Prevent Partnership Group and is in direct contact with the Hillingdon, Ealing, Harrow and Brent Channel/Multi Agency Programme. All serious referrals are made to the Police, either through the local force or the Counter terrorism hotline shown overleaf.

4 Staff responsibilities and examples of suspicious activity

All staff are part of a multi-agency approach to protect students at risk from radicalisation. All suspicions of activity of this kind should be immediately referred to a safeguarding officer or the Head of Security.

Example indicators that an individual is engaged with an extremist group, cause or ideology include:

- Spending increasing time in the company of other suspected extremists;
- Changing their style of dress or personal appearance to accord with the group;
- Their day-to-day behaviour becoming increasingly centred around an extremist ideology, group or cause;
- Loss of interest in other friends and activities not associated with the extremist ideology, group or cause;
- Possession of material or symbols associated with an extremist cause (e.g. the swastika for far right groups);
- Attempts to recruit others to the group/cause/ideology; or
- Communications with others that suggest identification with a group/cause/ideology.

Example indicators that an individual has an intention to use violence or other illegal means include:

- Clearly identifying another group as threatening what they stand for and blaming that group for all social or political ills;
- Using insulting or derogatory names or labels for another group;
- Speaking about the imminence of harm from the other group and the importance of action now;
- Expressing attitudes that justify offending on behalf of the group, cause or ideology;
- Condoning or supporting violence or harm towards others; or
- Plotting or conspiring with others.

5 Management of events and speakers

The College is committed to denying access to those persons who promote extremist views that support or are conducive to terrorism. The relevant policies and procedures for this are outlined below:

- The College's Student Code of Conduct and the College's Lettings policy have clear references to the acceptable behaviour and use of facilities with regard to Prevent.

5.1 Code of Practice on Freedom of Speech

Section 43 of the Education (No 2) Act 1986: requires the College to issue and keep up to date a code of practice to be followed by members, students, and employees of the College for the organisation of meetings and other events, which are to be held on College premises, and for the conduct required of members, students, and employees of the College in connection with meetings and other events.

Staff, visiting speakers and students of the College must conduct themselves so as to ensure that freedom of speech is within the law. The College believes that a culture of free, open & robust discussion can be achieved only if all concerned avoid needlessly offensive or provocative action & language.

Any external speakers must be approved by the Director/Curriculum manager for each area and all concerns and final decisions will be the responsibility of the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL). In these incidences the DSL will rate the risks associated and decide on the appropriate outcome.

There should be sufficient information about the event including topics and any speakers and sufficient notice to allow for checks to be made and cancellation to take place if necessary prior to the event.

Any staff or students that become aware of any incidents or instances where off-campus events of concern are promoted on campus should be reported immediately to the DSL. This may be through a student's tutor/SPA or Curriculum manager/Head of School.

6 Fundamental British values

As part of the College's commitment to delivering the Prevent agenda students will be engaged through promotional events and tutorials to understand the dangers associated with involvement in extremism and the promotion of fundamental British values. Furthermore students will be encouraged to develop their critical thinking skills through tutorials and as part of the curriculum.

6.1 Fundamental British values are:

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect
- Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

Extremism should not form part of the curriculum or teaching and students are encouraged to respect other people and no student is discriminated against contrary to the Equality Act 2010.

The College believes spiritual, moral, social and cultural (SMSC) standards will be strengthened by actively promoting fundamental British values and encouraging students to respect other people, with particular regard to the protected characteristics set out in the Equality Act 2010.
